

Barbara T. Doyle, MS, Clinical Consultant

Orland Park, Illinois

Phone: 708-966-4683

Website: www.barbaradoyle.com

Email: barbaratdoyle@att.net

Safety in Society

“Twenty Questions” for Safety

Ideas provided for sharing and discussion only

Here are some “content” questions that call for more than a simple yes or no answer. Use these questions for discussions about safety. Add more as you think of them. Adapt the questions for age and experience of the individual.

1. Who can touch your body? What parts of your body?
2. Whose body can you touch? What parts of their bodies?
3. If someone tells you to touch or kiss a girl/boy and s/he will be your girl/boyfriend, what should you do?
4. When you like a girl/boy, what do you have to do to make them your girl/boyfriend?
5. If a girl/boy says to touch her/his body and says it is ok, what should you do? What difference does it make if s/he is under age 18?
6. Is it ok to go into someone’s house if the person is not home, if the person is your good friend? Explain.
7. If someone needs to borrow your money, what should you do?
8. If you see someone’s computer and want to be sure it working right, what should you do?
9. If you are in the mall and a friend tells you to take something without paying for it, what should you do?
10. If you are at the mall and someone says you took something but you did not, what should you do?

11. If you are arrested, what should you say to the police? What should you do?
12. When a girl/boy that you like says that they already have a girl/boy friend, what does that really mean?
13. How do you know if a girl/boy does not want your attention anymore?
14. If someone says he locked his keys in the house, and asks you to go in the window to let him in, what should you do to help this person?
15. When is it ok to open the teacher's desk drawers?
16. If you are at home alone and the police come to the door and tell you to open the door, what should you do?
17. If you see police officers arresting someone, and it looks like they need help, what should you do?
18. If you see two people who are having an argument, how should you help them?
19. If someone tells you to climb on something or jump off something that is higher than your head, what should you do? How do you tell if something is too high to jump from or climb on?
20. How do you know if someone is a "stranger?"