

Resources: Supporting Inclusion of Children with Autism in Early Learning Settings

Documents
 http://www.ectacenter.org/~pdfs/meetings/inclusionMtg2012/MilbourneGenerichandoutforadaptationspresentationscorrecthierarchy.pdf	Forms from Cara's Kit to help plan adaptations for children
 http://www.pattan.net/category/Resources/PaTTAN%20Publications/	These documents can be found by searching inclusion or early intervention preschool on the PaTTAN website. The ones pictured here are the Early Educators Guide to Inclusion, Guidelines to Support the Early Intervention Process: Inclusion and Keys to Successful Early Childhood Inclusion. There are also a number of resources available related to autism, teaching language, behavior, etc.
Guidance & Coaching on Evidence-Based Practices for Learners With Autism Spectrum Disorders http://www.fpg.unc.edu/resources/guidance-coaching-evidence-based-practices-learners-autism-spectrum-disorders	National Professional Development Center (NPDC) on Autism Spectrum Disorders Coaching Manual The NPDC coaching manual was developed to support practitioners' implementation of evidence-based practices in programs that serve children and youth with autism spectrum disorders.
Learning Materials for Children of All Abilities: Begin With Universal Design <small>by Kirsten Haugen</small> https://secure.ccie.com/library/5016145.pdf	This document describes the Universal Design for Learning process and provides very specific ideas for including all young children in your lessons and play opportunities
Training Materials and Online Courses
 http://www.siskin.org/downloads/RoutinesBasedInterviewOKforweb.pdf	This powerpoint presentation explains the Routines Based Interview as a basis for planning and providing routines based interventions.
 AUTISM INTERNET MODULES Linking research to real life. http://www.autisminternetmodules.org/	The AIM project was begun in 2007 as a way to provide parents and professionals with the up-to-date information they need to help individuals with ASD achieve their highest potential. Currently modules are free but optional certificates for training credits cost $10.00.

Child Care Training, Resources and Networking  http://www.childcarelounge.com	Child Care Lounge provides a number of online courses for a small fee. The autism course costs $8.00. This provider is listed as a resource on the PA Keys to Quality website.
Websites related to inclusion
 http://npdci.fpg.unc.edu/resources/articles/Early_Childhood_Inclusion	National Professional Development Center on Inclusion (NPDCI) website is devoted to resources related to inclusion. The link posted here takes you to the joint statement on Early Childhood Inclusion. If you want to explore the whole site, click on home and go from there.
 www.pakeys.org	This website will provide you with links to the regional key for your area. The regional keys sponsor and organize training for childcare providers. They may set their training calendar a year at a time, but they can help you access trainers and may be able to sponsor training for your community. There are a number of child care trainers who are able to provide an introductory session on autism for child care providers and your regional key should be able to help you connect to one of them.
 http://www.parenttoparent.org/	Parent to Parent of PA connects families with one another for support about the special challenges and joys of having a family member with disabilities.
 www.ecmhc.org	The resources on this site are primarily focused on infants and toddlers. There are resources for families, classroom staff, and early childhood mental health consultants.
 www.challengingbehavior.org	The Technical Assistance Center on Social Emotional Intervention (TACSEI) provides resources many “hands on” resources to help families and educators support children. Of particular interest may be the Tool Kit for Teaching Children with Challenging Behaviors, the Backpack Series, and the Make and Take workshops
 http://csefel.vanderbilt.edu	The Center on Social and Emotional Foundations of Early Learning (CSEFEL) provides a variety of materials to support social emotional development of young children. The practical strategies include social stories and visual strategies including guidance on how to create them and when to consider using them.
 http://www.udlcenter.org/	Universal Design for Learning is systematically planning instruction so that learners with a variety of backgrounds and abilities are able to connect with the lesson. This site provides research, strategies and resources for developing lessons that are accessible to all.
Websites related to autism
 http://autism-support.org/	ABOARD’s Autism Connection of PA provides autism support across the state of Pennsylvania. We offer autism support to parents, including autism support groups, autism resources, and autism conferences and events. We also provide information

	on the signs and symptoms of autism, getting an autism diagnosis, and applying for medical assistance and health insurance. Finally, we help people with autism by providing information on autism treatments, links to autism research studies, and support groups for people on the spectrum.
Learn the Signs. Act Early www.cdc.gov/actearly	Look at the list on the left side of the page for resources for families and for resources for Early Childhood Educators. These include developmental checklists, free materials to download and links to other helpful websites.
 http://www.autismspeaks.org/	Autism Speaks funds and disseminates research and news on autism related topics. The website provides information about autism, about Autism Speaks activities, news across the nation and world, and resources of use to families and supporters of individuals with autism.
 www.autismresources.com	A searchable website of businesses that provide services to individuals with autism and other disabilities. Includes both specialized services and typical daily living services such as barbers/hairstylists, etc. Recommendations for new businesses and reviews of currently posted businesses are encouraged.
 http://www.portal.state.pa.us/portal/server.pt/community/early_intervention/8710	Early intervention page of the PA Dept. of Education website. From here you can access federal and state laws, regulations and supportive documents about early intervention.
Websites related to technology to support participation
 http://www.fctd.info/	Information for families, teachers and administrators about the use of assistive technology to support children's learning and participation
 http://tnt.asu.edu/home/	Website of uses and applications of technology for very young children. Check out the newsletters for excellent articles.
 http://letsplay.buffalo.edu/index.html	This website addresses how to help children participate in play. Topics addressed include choosing toys, universal design of activities, adaptive and assistive technology.